Volunteering

Each year we host volunteers wishing to make a difference in the lives of Moldova's elderly.

You can help by visiting our centre and sharing your skills and knowledge with our beneficiaries and staff.

If you would like to volunteer for Neومانist we welcome your time and your service. Please contact us at info@neohumanist.org for more information or at the telephone number (0237) 28003.

Make A Difference

The Neومانist Association relies on the help of others to fulfill the basic needs of the most vulnerable elderly in Moldova. As a non-profit organization we are in need of funding to fulfil our mission. Neومانist Association relies on people like you to help to sustain an elderly life in Moldova.

How to Get Involved

Become a Sponsor: For just 23 euros a month we will be able to provide one elderly person from the community with a warm meal.

Mission & History

- Serves approximately 350 elderly in the community through Rasarit Day Centre for the Elderly, Spectru Assisted Living Centre, and Home Care
- Neومانist Association was founded in 2000 to serve the most vulnerable groups of society
- Involve the community in program implementation to raise awareness and address the issues facing the elderly
- Partner with local and state governments to identify needs within the community
- Encourage and trains other government agencies and NGOs in Moldova to establish similar programs

Our History

Moldova is a former Soviet republic situated between Romania and Ukraine. Due to political instability, territorial separation, and corruption, the economic situation has become stagnant, causing many young people to go abroad to work, leaving children and the elderly behind.

Many elderly live in deplorable conditions without access to running water, sufficient food, proper sanitation, and medical services. Neومانist strives to fulfil their basic needs and let them rejoice in the golden years of their lives.
